

U.S. News and World Report Annual High School Rankings

Herculaneum High School is ranked in the top half of all public high schools in the United States. U.S. News and World Report crunched data on more than 23,000 public high schools and assigned a ranking to more than 17,000 schools. The Blackcats came in at 8,051st nationally.

Herculaneum High School is ranked 105th in Missouri. Three public high schools in Jefferson County scored better than Herculaneum. They are Northwest #52, Fox #85 and Seckman #97.

U.S. News and World Report based their rankings on six factors, including performance on state assessments and how well they prepared students for college.
