

Save the Date for Board Training!

On December 7, 2015 at 6:30 – 8:30 p.m. EducationPlus will be hosting an informational session for anyone considering running for their local School Board. The purpose of this meeting is to help educate potential candidates about the duties and requirements of the office so that they can make an informed decision before filing to run for the Board of Education.

The session outcomes include:

- An overview of the roles and responsibilities of a Board of Education Director or officer
- An understanding of the steps, activities and costs associated with running your election campaign
- An interactive Q and A session
- Invaluable advice from current Superintendents and Board Members representing multiple districts from across the region

This session is offered FREE of Charge.

The informational session will be held at EducationPlus

The McDonnell Room
1460 Craig Rd. St. Louis, MO 63146

Please park in the upper parking lot and enter through the main entrance.
