

Tisha (Delaney) Vandemore

Tisha (Delaney) Vandemore is a graduate of the Class of 1982. Tisha was a natural athlete who was a member of the volleyball, basketball, and track teams. She was also a member of the cheerleading and pompom squads and active in various clubs. During her senior year she received the Outstanding Volleyball Player Award and Outstanding Female Athlete Award. Tisha was a member of the Junior National Volleyball team in 1981, and she was the first Herculaneum graduate to receive a volleyball scholarship to Jefferson College.

Tisha was named to the All-Conference team twice and was a two-time All-American during her volleyball career at Jefferson College. She is currently a member of the Jefferson College Hall of Fame. After her graduation from Jefferson College, Tisha received a volleyball scholarship to the University of Nebraska. In 1985, she was First Team All Big Eight Conference and the MVP of the Big Eight Tournament. In 1986, she led the University of Nebraska Cornhuskers to their first NCAA Final Four Appearance in volleyball and a second-place finish. She was Big Eight First Team All-Conference, Big Eight All-Tournament Team, and Conference Player of the Week. Tisha was on the NCAA Midwest Regional Tournament Team, the Final Four All-Tournament Team, and All-American Honors. During her senior year at Nebraska, she received an invitation to try out for the Olympic team. Tisha graduated from the University of Nebraska in 1987 with a Bachelor of Arts in Communications. She has held positions in ticket sales and marketing for the St. Louis University Athletic Department and worked in sales and promotions for the St. Louis Storm Soccer Club. She has served as a consultant for the Epilepsy Foundation of North Carolina and currently works as Director of Operations for Long Gray Line Consulting. Tisha is married to Todd Vandemore, and they are raising three children in Charlotte, North Carolina. She was a natural athlete who pursued her endeavors with hard work and dedication, leading herself and her teams to great success. She exemplifies what it means to be a Blackcat. Congratulations to Tisha for becoming a part of the inaugural class of Blackcat Hall of Fame inductees!